

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

5/10/2012

Mayor Joseph Maturo Jr. released the following statement regarding the most recent allegations regarding Officer Michael D'Amato of the East Haven Police Department:

The East Haven Police Department and our administration continue to deal with the challenges that arise day to day. Although these challenges arose prior to my administration, they present another opportunity for reflection and improvement within our Department and within the Town. The Mayor's office will continue to work with the Police Department for the residents of the Town of East Haven to ensure the highest quality service of our Police Department.
